

From the UNDP (2019) study on Tolerance but not inclusion, what is your viewpoint on this issue? Discuss your view by including the forecasting impact on the economic sector and what policies government should implement to solve any challenges.

In my opinion, As in study in Thailand LGBT people are mostly accept in outside their family rather than those in their own family. Mostly they accept among they friends in rural area

In economic terms if this issue still exists I think there will be a gap in gender. Because currently people treat this group of people differently by gender equality which especially the opportunity in doing job and that may impact economic by these people will get paid low wage. So I think government should imply policy by supporting LGBT job such as night club, Drag-queen and bar host. Moreover, promoting a campaign that Thai people should treat this group for example, promoting campaign that Thai people should treat everyone equally. So our economic might be more sufficient
