

CPWS: Hamlet

What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be?” soliloquy?

Ans.: His soliloquy “To be or not to be” is about hamlet thought and decided that should he revenge for his father like it is similar to “To be” and not to be is not revenge for his father.

What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?

Ans.: In his life at that time, he faced that he has to decide what he will do after he knew that his father died with unnatural murder. If I had been in his situation, I would have exerted to find the real testimony – how hamlet’s father died and did his uncle concern in this unnatural murder situation then decided what to do next – will revenge or not.

What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

Ans.: Hamlet decided to kill Horatio because of his misunderstanding. Eventually, he killed Horatio by accidentally and led to the tragic end of the play.

What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

Ans.: His actions that he hid his knowledge and try to seek a correct evidence about how his father died – these things show that his personality is prudent not impulsive which is one of a good characteristic that man should have.

Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

Ans.: I thought that Hamlet pretended to be an insane person during the course of the play in order to detect about death of his father. Finally, I was died at the end.