

Hamlet

1. What choices was Hamlet pondering in his "To be or not to be?" soliloquy?
Answer to die or to sleep
2. What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?
Answer He had to face with his father's ghost which came and told him about king Claudius who was the killer. His father's ghost also told him to avenge for his death. I think I will do like him.
3. What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do(or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?
Answer Hamlet decided to avenge King Claudius. He made a play in front of King Claudius because it was the only way to catch the conscience of the King. The play was about the story of the death of his father.
4. What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?
Answer He was a clever man who used a play to represent the situation of his father's death. He was also a good son that did everything that his father told to do and avenged for his father's death.
5. Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of play?
Answer I think he did, he might pretend to be an insanity. In the fighting between Hamlet and Laertes, he realized suddenly about the sword and offered to change the sword with the Laertes. I think it is the one thing that can show that he was not insane.
