

CPWS: Hamlet

What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be?” soliloquy?

Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them?

What challenge did he face in his life at that time? What would you have done in his situation?

His father was killed by his uncle who he set himself as a king. And he married his mother at the same month.

If I were him I would go somewhere very far to study in something interesting to keep me busy and forget all the things that happened.

What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

He decided to kill his uncle but it was wrong person. And this led to vengeance and loss of everyone in the end.

What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

I should say that he is unstable because he couldn't control himself.

Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

Yes, think he overcame with insanity because he unable to control his own thought.
