Modern Arts

1. Some art beauty cannot be defined by word, so they try to explain it in supernatural way. Some people might have a different idea of what beauty is and therefore might not understand when some people call something an art. Only those who shared the same concept of art can understand what beauty is.
2. As you draw a picture the picture came closer to one of the two, the reality or language. In a cartoon almost every line conveys a meaning. Drawing can depict either the reality or the language.
3. The art is differing from most of the art during that time. It is consider being a good art since it is different from most art where there is a drawing of picture and people. The art has it hidden beauty which many might not understand.
