

Hamlet worksheet

1. What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be?” soliloquy?

Answer Because of his loss, he was depressed and thought that no one can help him to figure out of this. So he had the conflict in his mind whether or not to kill himself. But he did not do it finally.

2. What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?

Answer His uncle took the throne, married to his mother and killed his father by assuming. He needed to prove that his father was murdered by acting insanity. He had to push his beloved away to follow the plan. If I were him, I would bring the justice to decide instead of bringing the wrath into my mind and let it manage.

3. What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

Answer After he found that Claudius behaved suspiciously, he planned to kill him for revenge but the plan got distort because he killed Polonius by accident. His death led to the tragedy at the end.

4. What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

Answer his plan showed that he is shape and delicate person but deep down he showed his feeble through his quotation “To be, or not to be”. He is also impetuous as a result of his killing to the wrong person.

5. Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

Answer I think he can overcome his insanity but because he cannot control his emotions which is leading to the tragedy.
