

FN 424: INVESTMENT BANKING
Semester 2/2568

Course Objectives and Course Description

The course includes a study of investment banking business. The course will emphasize on methods for value maximization, valuation for mergers and acquisitions, and business reorganizations and other topics. The course covers a variety of investment banking activities such as debt restructuring, initial public offering, privatization, debt issuance and venture capital. This course is designed primarily to enhance your understanding of the process and responsibility of the investment banking. It introduces students to the world of investment banking and provides an idea on what the main functions of investment banking are. These include external fund raising through debt and equity capital, financial advisory service for corporate and debt restructuring, consultancy on privatization, merger and acquisition and venture capitalist valuation. The class enables students to learn from theories of capital structure through the utilization of the theory on the real company case. Through various rich examples and practice problems as well as the workshop, students are expected to learn what the investment bankers are doing.

After you complete the course, you are expected:

1. To understand the basic functions performed by the investment bankers
2. To master the use of the computer spreadsheet in financial modeling
3. To be able to create long-term financial plan, monitor and adjust the assumption and the plan to suit the rapidly changing situation
4. To be able to conduct valuation of the company and its stock
5. To understand the mechanism of venture capitalists and their valuation
6. To understand the step in fund raising through IPOs
7. To understand the step in fund raising through debentures
8. To understand about M&A

Please note here that the course assumes solid financial accounting and thorough understanding of financial statements. It is mandatory that you read the material before the beginning of the class and be prepared for the class discussion for every single class. All cases are prepared for you to understand and use your strategic thinking to identify problems, causes of problems and solutions to the problems. Please make sure you read the case before attending every class. You are also expected to contribute to enhance the learning of the class through active participation in case discussion and negotiation on a regular basis.
