CPWS: Hamlet

What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be?” soliloquy?

believe what the spirit said and revenge his uncle or not.

What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?

- Hamlet's father was murdered by his brother who's Hamlet's uncle and married his mother.
- I will not kill the uncle, but I will find a way to prove that he is wrong and let it be in accordance with the law.

What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

Hamlet intends to avenge his father. He exposes his uncle plan by using the drama board to uncover the assassination plan of his uncle.

What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

Brave, strong, strong, loving family and justice. Seen from the fact that he intended to avenge his father without regard to results that will come later and although he was banned. He also confirmed to continue his plan.

Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

He is conscious and also remember that he wanted to take revenge on his uncle. But he is feigned insanity because he did not want Ophelia to be involved with this matter.
