1) From the UNDP (2019) study on Tolerance but not inclusion, what is your viewpoint on this issue? Discuss your view by including the forecasting impact on the economic sector and what policies government should implement to solve any challenges.

Categorizing the gender inside a culture is still one of the greatest challenges, but as the world evolves, these false pretences of accepting those genders will become a greater challenge for every community. because they stay unseen by everyone.

In the human capital concept, LGBT individuals are able to realize their economic potential when they have access to education and training that boosts their productivity and when they are treated equally in the job market.

The government must enhance LGBT nondiscrimination rights under executive or agency authority. This will enable more LGBT individuals to optimize their economic engagement.
