

BE Portal System User Manual for EE Preregistration

1. Log on to the BE Portal System.
2. Select the 'Enrollment' on the left – hand navigation bar.

2.1 Course list will appear on the 'Enrollment' page. For each semester (1, and 2), the course list is designed to be a drop-down menu respectively.

- Each course is followed by the details including the prerequisite, section, credits, number of the quota, and the remaining available seat.

2.2 To preregister the course(s), students can choose their expected course(s) using the checkbox in front of the course(s). Students are responsible to check the class time, duplicate courses, and the EE composition rules before choosing the course(s). If the preregistration conflicts to any rules, the pop – up warning will be presented.

The screenshot shows the B.E. Portal interface. In the left sidebar, the 'Enrollment' link is highlighted. The main content area displays a list of courses for 2022 Semester 1 - Economics Courses. The 'EE212 Principles of Macroeconomics' course is selected and highlighted. A 'Submit' button is highlighted in the top right corner.

Summary of Pre-Registration Rules

- The following conditions will not be accepted for pre-registration.
 - Course conflict (day or time)
 - Duplicate courses for both two semesters
 - EE211, EE212, EE311, and EE312 are designed to be chosen only one in a semester.
- Either a semester pre-registration or two-semester pre-registration both can be made at a time. (You can pre-register each semester separately at a time, but you are required to pre-register both two semesters by the deadline scheduled.)
- During the period scheduled, all pre-registered courses can be removed, or a new course can be added in case that the course is not fully enrolled.
- For any courses with 2 sections with same schedule. The section can be chosen during the registration on www.reg.tu.ac.th but NOT on BE-portal.

Pre-Registration Schedule

- The pre-registration date and time will be scheduled for students in each batch. Students are responsible to pre-register by the date, and time scheduled.
- In case students have not pre-registered for the EE courses, students will be suspended for the upcoming Non-EE pre-registration (except the General Education courses).
