

Research question: How technology affect the labor system in Thailand?

sub question : How government can balance between technology and people in labor force

: Does social media change behavior of people in labor system

Nowaday technology had improve twice every year that help people to manage thing easier with cheaper cost. In term of labor this was interesting, what's the thing going to happen when we don't need people to work instead of using technology which is faster, easier to organize and Cheap. In this research paper we will find out how development of technology change the labor system in Thailand and how to balance them so we can work with it properly.