Aon Thailand

Aon's operation in Thailand comprises Aon Risk Solutions, which provides multifaceted retail brokering and risk management services; Aon Benfield, the reinsurance intermediary and capital advisor of Aon; and Aon Hewitt, which focuses on human resource consulting and outsourcing services.

Starting with data-driven risk evaluation; continuing with fact-based risk advice; culminating in the intelligent design and execution of insurance and risk management programmes, Aon Risk Solutions delivers customised and innovative solutions that have measurable and positive impact on our clients' business.

Our extensive client portfolio includes leading international and local companies, regulatory bodies, professional associations, as well as small and medium enterprises. Regardless of your size, industry sector, geography, or circumstance, Aon Thailand is dedicated to providing you with distinctive value and superior services.

Aon is the leading risk and insurance advisor and broker in the world. We have the most extensive office footprint in the industry, an exclusive network of owned broking centres of excellence, and an unsurpassed range of industry knowledge and expertise. Tapping into our global network and service strength, Aon Thailand leverages its extensive local experience to help safeguard and advance our clients' business. Over the years, Aon Thailand has contributed significantly to our customers in minimising their total cost of risk and insurance, and protecting their assets, people, profitability, and the integrity of their brand name.
