1. Summarize "On the Problem of Form" in your own words.

Form and evolution comes from the creative spirit that chooses to grow in human soul and provoke a new idea and Necessity creates form, At the necessary time when Creative Spirit or Abstract Spirit searches for the way to the soul and causes a desirable drive. These causes create a new value in human spirit. The white ray represents the supporter while the Black Hand covering our eyes becomes a barrier. The movement cannot turn out possible if two conditions, the outer one and inner one, do not exist.

The outer condition is the clear path for the evolution. The inner condition is that the mind conceived by clear path that idea is possible. At the same time, the Black Hand continues its duty to eliminate all these condition. The tools are the fear of clear path, the fear of freedom, and the deafness of spirit. However, when the idea manages itself to overcome the form, it becomes a new form that eventually blocks others. At every period of time, there are different forms call styles. And that is the problem of form, which leads to the conclusion that one should not consider form as matter. The real important thing is the spirit. Moreover, forms are created to express inside of the individual's soul. It can be changed when comes to others.

2. On page 51 of "Understanding Comics - Chapter 2" is a big triangle. Explain in your own words how to use the triangle.

The triangle represents the way of drawing human face, show the way we draw a picture. First one is 'The picture plane' it's the basic form of drawing. The second one is 'reality'. The last one is 'Language' as we go to the right, the more our picture refers to its language. At the top, we have the picture plane. The more we getting close to the top, the more picture becomes harder to understand or reality.

3. Is "No. 5, 1948" good art? Explain your answer using examples from the readings.

No. 5, 1948 was painted by Jackson, it is a painting with an abstract style of art. the painting if self give the different sense compare to the other art work, abstract art is the kind of art work in which none of it can be similar to each other, The painting refers to nothing else, just the painting. Jackson Pollock, a famous artist who created this painting was one of the first who started to paint with abstract style of art. That is the reasons why No.5 1948 is one of the world most expensive paintings in the world. In my idea toward this art work is that it's not good and not bad, in my opinion each of us had different perspective toward art work because each of us had our own view of art work.
