1. Who was David?

David's full name is Jacques-Louis David. He was a French artist, who paints "The Death of the Marat". He also was one of the rebellions who paint a picture to describe every situation that happen in the revolution.

2. Who was Marat?

Marat was a journalist. He was also one of the revolutionist. The picture "death of Marat" was painted because of his death.

3. Why did Corday kill Marat?

Corday thought that Marat is the one who carry on a civil war and the dictator who was very dangerous to other people.

4. Why does Simon Schama call The Death of Marat a "beautiful lie"? How is it beautiful? How is it a lie?

Schama call "The Death of marat" a "beautiful lie" because the picture portray a perfectly lie which created a thought of reality. The beauty of this painting made people enchanted and have a faith in his devotion. The lie point is Corday didn't give him a polite note but a list of Traitor. Or even his bloodless wound and the wrong position of a knife.

5. Describe your own aesthetic of beauty. (Remember to write using only your own words, i.e. don't copy from a friend.

The aesthetic of beauty in my opinion was the abstraction of the picture and the meaning of it. That looked very complicated but actually it was not.
