CPWS-Hamlet

1. What choices was Hamlet pondering in his "To be or not to be?" soliloquy?

Answer: There are the choices whether he should believe or not that ghost is his father or not and if he is the father should he believe his plan to kill the uncle.

2. What challenge did he face in his life at that time?

What would you have done in his situation?

Answer: At that time, he had to face with so many stressful and horrible things, not only his father was assassinated by his uncle, Claudius and he established himself as a new king of the land instead of his brother but also Claudius married to Hamlet's mother. I think, if this were happen to me, it would be the worthiest things ever happen to my life and I would be full with revenge. However, what I decide to do is stay away from his uncle and everyone involved may be go aboard and learn how to forgive them. I know that it would be very hard to do but it is the best way to avoid damage and nothing you can do much about it. Let, them suffer with the wrong they have done, like in a Buddhism way. Because, if I still stayed there and act some unreasonable things (i.e. Kill your uncle) then the sin will be on me and I do not want that.

3. What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

Answer: After he got enough evidence then he decided to kill his uncle but unfortunately he kill the wrong man. From miss killing led to the big lost and tragic end, people vengeance each other

4. What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

Answer: I think he is smart, thoughtful, love in justice and love his father a lot. But I believe that the situation people faced can changed who we are. So, he lost his self- controlled from all he had faced with eventually changed him self, being indecisive, being full of revenge until insanity come to his mind.

5. Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

Answer: He did not overcome with insanity during the course of play, because he still can not controlled his mind and his thought that led him to act unreasonable and huge damage and terrible stuff happen.
