

Topic How does employment rate and labor effect to to the poverty in Thailand

Sub question Adjust the minimum wage can reduce the disparity.

Covid19 impact labor on Thai labor market

Working age nowadays in Thailand

Thailand nowadays encountered with the big problem of poverty approximately 6.8 percent of the population lives in country and average of wage still 300 baht per day that effect to the liveliness of population. Today, Thailand receives the effect of covid19 from China causing the poor people to increase and unemployment rate in the Thai market. Moreover with increasing senior citizens that encounter particular challenges in the labor market because of care responsibilities, health challenges and lower education levels.