

Groundhog Day homework

1.) This movie is about a selfish man who always look down people. his name is Phil and he's a news reporter. one day he was sent to report weather forecast at Punxsutawney in Pennsylvania in America and he was struck there because of storm. Next day he woke up and found that he was in the same day as yesterday and everything occurred repeatedly. At first, he was fun and do everything he want such as rob the bank and go on date with many girls but later, he was tortured and want to got away from this situation. One day he realized that no matter what day today is, the important thing is he should do his best in everyday and when he became the better man, his life went back to normal.

2.) In my opinion, i think Groundhog Day is kind of a religious movie because this movie shows that Phil woke up in the same day everyday thats like a cycle of life. For example, in Buddhism, people always death and birth in everyday, so, its like a cycle. The buddha realized this and finally he find the way out of this cycle that is nirvana.

3.) everything that Phil goes through tests him. Although at first he was fun with it but later he knew that it was such a worthless thing such as dating many girls. He must find a way out of this situation and the important thing he learn from this situation is no matter what day today is, the important thing is he should do his best in everyday.

4.) Phil's journey related existentialism by many ways. One noticeable thing is his selfishness. At first he was so selfish and always look down other people but later he improved him self became a better man.

5.) If I was trapped in Groundhog day, i think it is a good chance to do the right thing. For example, if i know that the accident will occurred, i will try to help many people as much as i can. I'll do my best in everyday.

6.) Last question i said that i will do my best in everyday that means i will not waste my time. I will spent my life meaningful. The definition of meaning of life in my opinion is make do the best in everyday and i will not regret it.
