

Final Exam Guidelines

E463 Globalization and International Development
Faculty of Economics
Thammasat University

November 2021

Final Exam: Method and Format

Exam method

- Open book
- Duration: 3 hours

Format

- Part A: brief answers to questions 10 questions
- Part B: essay, open ended response 3 questions

Weights

- Part A: 40%
- Part B: 60%

Typed response

- Suggest to submit a typed response; handwriting sometimes difficult to read

Final Exam: Content

Human and social development

- importance of health and education; trends and patterns; key indicators

Urban and rural development

- importance of cities; rural transition; rural-urban linkages

Sustainable development and climate change

- market failure and externalities; environmental policies; climate change impacts, mitigation and adaptation

Content

Gender and development

- benefits of gender investments; gender mainstreaming and representation

International trade

- trends, policies, advantages and disadvantages of trade

Foreign aid

- perspectives on aid; bilateral and multilateral aid

International capital flows

- forms of international; capital flows impacts of foreign investments