Hamlet worksheet

1. Hamlet is facing a problem because of his father's death and other bad event around him which made him to decide to kill himself or not. It explains about the hurt and sorrow that Hamlet is facing death.
2. It is the feeling of sadness and mournful that turn Hamlet to madness. He is concerned that his father's death is not usual; he thinks that someone poisons his father and that person could be his uncle. He also suspected that his mother was involved too because she seems to be happy about her new marriage. This is a hard situation to Hamlet because it is the close people that tried to murder his father. I would try to find out the facts about this and prove it so that everyone can receive fairness.
3. Hamlet asked the people to play an act about his father's death to see the reaction from his uncle. In the act, the person who killed his father became king which means it is his uncle. Then Hamlet was send away because he accidently killed Polonius. Ophelia becomes mad because Hamlet, the one she loves killed her father. Laertes came back to have revenge for his father then he plan with the king to kill Hamlet.
4. He is a very emotional person because he was very depress and turned mad. Hamlet is a serious person because he really wanted to revenge for his father. He even killed Polonius because he thought that it was his uncle.
5. Yes, because with he found out that his uncle killed his father and his mother married his uncle he was depressed and then turned mad. He could see his father's spirit and it made Hamlet to seek revenge for his father.
