Wednesday 10 May 2023

13:30-16:30

- The final exam will be in-class. Students are allowed to bring one (1) A4-size page of handwritten, typed or downloaded paper (front and back). The Perkins book on Economic Development, lecture presentations and readings will be the main reference sources.
- Students will be required to choose only three (3) of five (5) essay topics:
 - Urban development; urban-rural linkages
 - Sustainable development and climate change
 - Gender and development
 - International trade
 - Foreign aid International capital flows
- Students will need to provide thoughtful responses, which demonstrate good logic, structure and flow. Several suggestions include:
 - Use complete sentences, not bullet points
 - Avoid unnecessary details, include only relevant information
- The time allocated for the exam is three (3) hours.
- Good luck to all on your exam.
