

What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be” soliloquy?

:He is pondering whether the ghost is his father or not.

What challenge did he face in his life at that time?

What would you have done in his situation?

:He was facing the situation that his uncle killed his father so he has to figure out whether that is true or not. If I were him I would not let anyone to get involved in making a decision because it could lead him to the wrong decision.

What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

:He killed his uncle the wrong person, and this led to vengeance and loss of everyone in the end.

What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

:I think he has a problem with controlling himself when he is under high pressure situation. He has an indecisive personality and these led him to the wrong decision.

Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

:No. He just pretended to be insane to prove whether his uncle killed his father or not.
