

EE361 Economics of CLMV Countries

Prerequisites : a) EE210 or b) EE211 and EE212 or c) EE213 and EE214
Curriculum 56 & 61
3 Credit

Economic development in the cluster of Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, and Vietnam (CLMV) countries. The transformation of their economic structure. The roles of public and private institutions along with other economic, social, and political factors that contribute to their economic changes. The relationship between these economies and the world and Thai economies.

EE463 Globalization and International Development

Prerequisites : a) EE211 and EE212; or b) EE213 and EE214
Curriculum 61
3 Credit

Concept and development of globalization in the context of after the World War II. Formation of the New International Economic Order (NIEO). Global organizations. Multinational corporations. International cooperation. Political economy of dependency. Debates on contribution and impacts of globalization on the local economy. Contemporary transnational development issues. Roles of international development organizations e.g. the United Nations, World Bank, International Monetary Fund (IMF), etc., in bridging the global north and the global south or within the south countries through the official development assistance (ODA), development loan, or development projects. Analysis of patterns, factors of success and failures of past international development projects. Basic techniques for development project evaluation.

Dr. Januar Hakim

Senior Portfolio Management Specialist
Asian Development Bank

- AREAS OF INTEREST : Socio-economic development in the ASEAN and the Greater Mekong Subregion with emphasis on Cambodia, Lao PDR and Viet Nam; globalization and development of transition economies; institutional and policy reform; emerging cross-cutting issues (e.g. gender, climate change, disaster risk reduction, urbanization) in development; changing urban-rural relations and linkages in Southeast Asia; and recently, writing on various development issues in the GMS.
- EXPERTISE : Public policy analysis; urban and regional development; portfolio and project management