The discrimination and violence against a specific group (LGBTI or others) in society cannot be accepted. The impact on the economic sector from discrimination is similarly with impact of discrimination against women which mainly affects the life quality of that specific group including education, Health & Wellness and etc. and economically in the labor market the discrimination will lead to deadweight loss (imperfect competition). To support, government should improve the accessibility to economic activity along with equal rights for this particular group. such as Same-Sex marriage, the right to adopt child.
