

CPWS: Hamlets

1. What choices was Hamlet pondering in his “To be or not to be?” soliloquy?
-He was pondering if his father’s spirit was real and that he should follow his father desire to kill his uncle or not.
2. What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?
-He faced the challenge after he heard from his friend about his father’s desire to revenge his uncle and if he should believe his friend and killed his uncle or not. If I were Hamlet I would definitely not kill my uncle but try to prove and show the truth that his uncle was the one who killed his father instead.
3. What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?
-He tried to kill his uncle but he killed the wrong one. At the end many people die which led to the tragic.
4. What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?
-His act of getting revenge for his father shows that he is a vengeful person which led to a disaster at the end.
5. Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?
-He pretended to be insane in order to prove that his father was killed by his uncle but at the end he could not overcome and happened to killed many people unnecessarily.
