CPWS: Hamlet

What choices was Hamlet pondering in his "To be or not to be?" soliloquy?

Choices are that he is thinking that the ghost is his father or not. And his choice to whether kill his uncle or not kill him.

What challenge did he face in his life at that time?
What would you have done in his situation?

His dad got killed by his uncle. And his uncle later set himself as the new king and even go further to marry his mother.

If I were to be hamlet. I would stop the thinking of any revenge because any hatred ~~that~~ should not be retaliated by hatred which will further cause more hatred. I just stop, talk with the reason if it is not possible then I will walk away.

What did Hamlet decide to do? What things did he do (or not do) that eventually led to the tragic end of the play?

He decides to take revenge for his father. But when he take action he did to the wrong guy. And with this action led to the tragic end of the story.

What do his actions say of his personality? What kind of man was Hamlet?

He has critical thinking characteristic. He will do a very thorough proving of what the ghost said before he take any action.

Do you think Hamlet was overcome with insanity during the course of the play?

No, because he pretend to be insane just to prove ~~the~~ that whether his uncle is the killer or not.
