

1. Summarize “On the problem of form” in your own words.

Creative spirit is a cause of create form that has the value of spiritual thing to human being and that will be the evolution or elevation to the human. The creative spirit envelop in the matter and almost of people can not recognize to the meaning of spirit. For some people see the evolution is absurdity so they try to stop this process. If there are no protesting, in the external condition the way of material world will clear. When human spirit can sense to the abstract spirit it is internal condition. For who do not want evolution use the tools to stop condition by making evolution is ridiculous and unvalued things. After a period of time people familiar with the new thing and see that is important. It is putted in to the wall of ancient form by the hand of protesting people. For the new value, it is not important how people see but important that how the value tell people. For the forms in view of artists can be not see in the same content but the form of each artist will be the mirror to tell people how he feels. To make a form it contains elements that is the reflection in term of style. When the form relate to other that is same type, it will create a movement. And the more experience and spirit, the more result of form.
