Join us via one of two tracks

Junior Relationship Manager

You will build trusted relationships with clients and support in the provision of bespoke advice on investment products and services. You are expected to be involved in new business developments and capitalise on business opportunities.

Highly driven candidates who are eager to form genuine connections with clients and enjoy keeping up-to-date on new product offerings and market trends are encouraged to choose this track.

Investment Advisor

You will formulate investment strategies and work with relationship managers (RMs) in managing client portfolios. You will also partner with RMs on client meetings to articulate investment ideas and concepts, create investment proposals and conduct portfolio reviews.

Candidates with a future-oriented mindset and a strong understanding of team interdependencies are encouraged to choose this track.
